SPECIAL EVENTS ON CAMPUS

VIC PERRY . . . .

Vic Perry is now at the apex of his career. His stimulative lecture ranges from intriguing listeners with stories of his spy missions, baffling hard-core skeptics with feats of ESP, and amazing the audience with his pickpocket talents. He has appeared as a guest on such T. V. Talk-Shows as Johnny Carson, Dick Cavett, Steve Allen, Merv Griffin, Dinah Shore, Mike Douglas, etc. describing the art of "picking pockets."

March 7, 1974, 8:00 p.m., College Auditorium

BASKETBALL . . . .

Second-year letterman, Bob Hammer, displays an example of the excitement generated by this year's basketball team. (See Activity Calendar for schedule of games)

FILM SCHEDULE

"UP THE DOWN STAIRCASE"

"Up the Down Staircase" is the poignant story of the disillusionment of a hopeful young teacher as she copes with her first job in a public school. In assuming her new responsibility she finds callousness in the attitudes of her colleagues, a system which is indifferent to the unique potential of the individual student, and pupils with a broad range of personal and educational problems. Sandy Dennis does much to flesh out the character of the nervous fledgling educator.

January 4, 1974, 8:00 p.m., College Auditorium

"TWELFTH NIGHT"

The Russian version of Shakespeare's comedy, "Twelfth Night", done in the English language revolves around Orsino, Duke of Illyria, who has fallen in love with Olivia, a rich countess. Orsino has trouble winning Olivia's hand in marriage so he sends an emissary, Cesario (actually Viola, sister of Sebastian, disguised as a young man) to intercede with Olivia on his behalf. Olivia falls in love with Cesario (in reality it is Sebastian, brother of Cesario whom she loves) but in the end the web of confusion is straightened out and two marriages not one take place.

February 8, 1974, 8:00 p.m., College Auditorium

"HEIDI"

The magnificence of the Swiss Alps offers visual beauty unsurpassed in this Seven Arts production of this famous children's classic "Heidi". The girl with the golden hair who brings happiness to all those around her, makes this film abound with the pure joy of living. The lush mountain valleys and the snowy peaks of Switzerland create a magic that makes this a must for young and old alike. It was named one of the best of the "New Films" for 1968 by Catholic Film Newsletter.

February 22, 1974, 8:00 p.m., College Auditorium

"ON THE WATERFRONT"

"On the Waterfront" is the story of a priest who sets out to smash mob control over the New York waterfront. . . and of an inarticulate longshoreman who slowly becomes aware of what he could amount to in the world. Marlon Brando's performance as the inarticulate longshoreman, groping toward a new idea of what he could be, is one of the finest seen on the screen. Lee J. Cobb is the ruthless gang-leader, while Eva Marie Saint is the girl who tries to track down the murderer of her longshoreman brother and in the process falls in love with Brando. With documentary explicitness we see the corrupt union boss at work withholding employment from those who balk at the kickback of part of their wages and ruthlessly ordering the murder of any dock worker with courage enough to speak out against his tyranny.
